Wishing you health and a relaxed Easter

It's a difficult, strange time at the moment. I wanted to send my best wishes to you. I hope you are staying healthy and well, and that despite circumstances, that you enjoy this coming Easter weekend at home.

As you may have seen on my Instagram or Facebook pages, I have been self-isolating in the Highlands, Scotland, specifically in our family garage, which has become my studio space. I'm really enjoying utilising this space and time to delve deeper into my painting practice, my use of composition, my themes and concerns, while connecting back with myself.

I'm looking forward to creating and sharing more of my artwork with you soon on my social media. I hope you can join me there, and in the meantime, stay safe and well,

Best wishes,
Louise
